Cost: $175.00 per person plus the cost of your garment. To see all your garment choices access Harrisville.com. Supplemental lighting and personal supplies are recommended. Overnight accommodations are not included; rooms are $99.00 per night plus tax. You may share a room (and the cost) with someone. Meals are on your own; there is a poolside cafe on the premises and restaurants nearby within walking distance of the hotel. Evenings are unscheduled, but Donna will be available for help during the evening.

A reservation, payment and sweater choice is required by August 1, 2011 or before. Checks or cash is preferred. Please deal directly with the Anchorage-by-the-Sea by August 1, 2011 at 207-646-9384 for your hotel reservation. Anyone at the reservation desk can take your reservation; be sure to tell them your room is part of the block set aside for Lamb’s Ear Yarns. One night’s deposit is required. Cancellation policy is 14 days less a twenty dollar processing fee; canceling within 14 days incurs one night’s deposit.

The Anchorage–the-Sea resort has been in Ogunquit for 33 years and has 245 rooms. The views of the beach and ocean are beautiful! We will be in a newly renovated wing with all new furnishings and optional views. There is a poolside café for light breakfast and lunch and the Marginal Way is at their doorstep. There’s great shopping and a number of wonderful restaurants to choose from. This retreat promises to be lots of fun!

If you cancel after you have paid for the retreat and your kit is ordered, a refund will be paid ONLY if your space can be filled from a waiting list. You will be entitled to keep your kit. If the minimum number of 10 is not met, the event will be cancelled, and the entire amount you have paid will be refunded... No store credits will be allowed.
